

Year 6 Literacy Homework: Thrills and Spills

(Choose one per week. Hand in every Monday)

Design a leaflet to advertise your own ski/snowboarding/sports resort.	Write a diary extract based on your participation in an extreme sport. (It can be made up!)	Write a persuasive letter from the point of view of a parent who wants their child to stop participating in dangerous sports.
Write a set of detailed instructions, including an equipment list, about how to carry out a made up extreme sport of your own.	Take a photo (and print it for a class display) of yourself reading in an unusual 'extreme' situation.	Write a newspaper report about an extreme sports story. It could be a success or a disaster story.
Write about a time when you have had to conquer a fear and how you did it.	Research the history of fairgrounds and present it in a format of your choice.	Design a new fairground or theme park ride and produce an advert for it.
Write about the extreme sport you would most like to take part in and why.	Research an extreme sports person and present in a format of your choice.	Write a poem about thrills and spills, which includes metaphors and similes.

Homework Project: This can be about any Thrills and Spills. You may want to research an extreme sport or fairgrounds and theme parks. You could also find out about the circus and its history.
